

Who's on my ballot?

2021 ST. PAUL MAYORAL ELECTION

MELVIN CARTER

- Incumbent Mayor
- Access to high-quality education and workforce training
- $15 minimum wage
- Foster ongoing dialog about the role and relationship of police in our community

BILL HOSKO

- Independent and Non-partisan
- Plans to reverse rising crime rates
- Eliminate needless city hall spending

DINO GUERIN

- Pledges to put an end to the violent crime epidemic
- Reduce tax burden on residents and businesses
- Support businesses with effective public services

MIKI FROST

- Supports both the Saint Paul Police Department reform, including increasing training and expanding community outreach
- Will leverage community partnerships to foster personal youth development into productive and contributing members of society.
- Plans on expanding tax base and increase jobs with the community's input.

PAUL LANGENFELD

- Will work with law enforcement to restore law and order
- Wants to facilitate relationships between small businesses and decision-makers in both the private and public sectors.
- Funding for help centers that are focused on training and education, position individuals for success.

DORA-JONES ROBINSON

- Secure the safety of every individual who lives in St. Paul
- Reinvest in our police department, not defund them
- Give businesses an incentive to move back to downtown St. Paul,

ABU NAYEEM

- Reform St. Paul Police which includes community based alternatives, police funding, and accountability
- Implement participatory budget where citizens can distribute a portion of their tax dollars to public proposals and have approval authority
- Bring citizens together to create activities, events, and building a community.